THE ONE. THE ONLY. DREW G.

WHO THE F*#! IS DREW G?

Featured on Sirius XM and Perezhilton.com, Drew G's work is no stranger to the Billboard Club Chart. With his Remix Partner Brian Cua, Drew G has mixed official remixes for some of the hottest music artists on the scene. Recently, he has been spending his studio time producing Mya's new album, set for release in 2011, as well as working on remixes for the Fame Monster herself, Lady Gaga. Add these names to a list of mega music stars he has already remixed for including Ashanti, Solange, Whitney Houston, Britney Spears, Deborah Cox, Mary J. Blige, and David Archuleta to name a few.

WHAT IS

All across the country, clubs and energized dancers are requesting Drew G and Brian Cua's Dirty Pop Sound. A blend of hip hop beats mixed with electro, dance and rock music melodies are blended together into one mainstream sound. The Dirty Pop sound has been influenced by such greats ranging from Van Halen to Shep Pettibone, Pink Floyd, Chuckie and Deadmau5. Quite simply, Dirty Pop is a fresh, hard, and exciting approach to the music people love.

Mentored by Shep Pettibone, Edge Magazine has called Drew G "One of the most-sought after talents on the dance music scene." He plays clubs and bars across the United States including The Posh G in NYC; Town and Cobalt in Washington, DC; Voyeur in Philadelphia, as well as Mj's & Mickey's in Los Angeles.

Invited to spin at numerous events around the globe, Drew G is the youngest DJ to play the famed Black Party (three times) as well as the legendary Roxy. He has also brought his signature style to high profile events including a 2008 Presidential Inaugural Dance for Barack Obama, Carnival in Puerto Vallarta, and the 2010 Gay & Lesbian Ski Week in CO.
